MEASURES SUBMITTED TO THE VOTERS
NOVEMBER 6, 2018 CONSOLIDATED GENERAL ELECTION

CITY
City of Red Bluff
Measure A
Shall the measure extending until March 31, 2031 the City's existing ¼% transactions and use tax ("sales tax"), which raises approximately $900,000 annually for general fund purposes such as police and fire staffing and equipment, and enhanced recreation and park facilities, be adopted?

Advisory Measure B – Advisory Vote Only
If the voters of the City of Red Bluff approve an extension of the existing transactions and use tax ("sales tax"), should the City Council continue to allocate 85% of proceeds of the continuing tax to the improvement of police and fire services and allocate the remainder to support parks, recreation and other general fund services?

SCHOOLS
Red Bluff Union Elementary School District
Measure C
To renovate/upgrade classrooms, restrooms and school facilities that improve the quality of education; replace deteriorating plumbing systems; upgrade inadequate electrical, heating and air conditioning systems; repair/replace leaky roofs; and make health/safety improvements, shall Red Bluff Union Elementary School District issue $12,000,000 of bonds, at legal rates, raising on average $700,000 annually, estimated through 2053, levying approximately $0.03/$100 assessed valuation, with annual audits, independent citizens' oversight, NO money for administrator salaries and all money for local schools?
