

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Date: April 22, 2013

Contact: Kristina Miller

(530) 528-1103

Free Events!

Just in time for Spring Cleaning, Saturday, April 27, 2013 is the big day for collection and reuse events throughout the county. The following are scheduled for Saturday, April 27th and free to all Tehama County residents to include:

Free Electronic Waste (e-waste) Collection            8am-12 noon

- Tehama County Department of Social Services at 310 S. Main Street in Red Bluff and the Park and Ride commuter parking lot in Corning (corner of Third and Solano Streets)
- ALL size televisions, microwave ovens, ALL computer equipment including printers and monitors, DVD and VCR's, fax machines, along with other small electronic items will be accepted free of charge

Free Nationwide Prescription Drug Take-Back            10am-2pm

- Corning Police Department at 774 Third St, Corning, the Red Bluff Community Center Parking Lot at 1500 South Jackson Street, and the Tehama County Sheriff Department at 22840 Antelope Blvd, Red Bluff
- Properly dispose of expired, unwanted, or unused pharmaceutical controlled substances and other medications anonymously. Intra-venous solutions, injectables, needles, and illicit substances such as marijuana or methamphetamines will not be accepted

Free Household Hazardous Waste Collection            8am-12 noon residents

- Corning HHW Facility at 3281 Highway 99W Corning, CA 96021.
- Businesses and government agencies must make an appointment in advance. Please call 528.1103. Small fees apply
- Acceptable materials include: fluorescent lights, transmission fluid, grease, pesticides, fertilizers, paint, stains, pool & spa chemicals, detergents, disinfectants, old gasoline, kerosene, cresote, tar, aerosol cans, propane cylinders (small only), acids, bases, such as drain cleaner, tub & tile cleaner, etching products, and solvents.
- Please keep wastes in original containers

Free REAP Reuse Products            10am-2pm

- The REAP trailer, which stands for the REuse of Available Products, will be at the Tehama Country Conservation Day at Red Bluff's Frontier Village (on Antelope Boulevard across from the fairgrounds) redistributing free products to the public, while supplies last.

For more information please visit www.tehamacountylandfill.com or contact the Tehama County Sanitary Landfill Agency at 528-1103.