

TEHAMA COUNTY, CA

MENTAL HEALTH DIRECTOR

$122,678 — $149,136 DOE/DOQ

TEHAMA COUNTY

Nestled in the northern Sacramento Valley, Tehama County lies approximately midway between Sacramento and the Oregon border. The County sits alongside the beautiful Sacramento River and is only 50 miles west of Lassen National Park. Tehama County is the central point of widespread recreation; with nearby camping, hunting, fishing, golfing, snow skiing, and boating resources as good as or better than anywhere in California. Tehama County is home to approximately 65,000 people. In our County's small town atmosphere, you can experience the feeling of knowing your neighbors. Additionally, the mean travel time to work is only 23 minutes and the cost of living in Tehama County is lower than many other places in California.

The strong western heritage will capture your heart and awaken your spirit. Some of the best western events in California occur in Red Bluff, including the Red Bluff Round-Up Rodeo, and the Annual Bull and Gelding Sale, the largest in the nation. The old Victorian west lives on here. Main Street is dotted with quaint shops offering antiques and collectibles. The Sacramento River provides an endless variety of outdoor recreation and is one of the largest salmon spawning rivers in the world. Red Bluff is also considered the gateway to the renowned Lassen Volcanic National Park, encompassing 166 square miles of spectacular volcanic exhibits and the formidable Lassen Peak. The town of Corning is the center of Northern California's award-winning olive oil producers and olive product retailers.

Surrounding Areas

Residents of Tehama County can visit beautiful and exciting destinations that surround the area. The San Francisco Bay Area makes for a great weekend getaway. The Napa Valley provides top rated wineries, restaurants and shopping. Weekend trips include the incredible Northern California Coast where visitors enjoy surfing, boating, fishing, or just walking in the sand. Tehama County residents are regular visitors to Lake Tahoe with world-class ski resorts, casinos, lake activities, and breathtaking mountain views.

Tehama County is committed to ensuring all business practices are conducted in a manner which upholds the ethical, professional, and legal standards of public service.
